

Resolution appointing Cathy Collins-Taylor to the Franklin County Community Based Corrections Facility Governing Board

(COMMISSIONERS)

WHEREAS, since 1993, the Community Based Correction Facility (CBCF) has functioned as a minimum security detention center to be used as an alternative to divert non-violent, felony offenders from state prison. This program/facility was established under Sections 2301.51 and 2301.58 of the Ohio Revised Code; and

WHEREAS, in Franklin County, the CBCF is currently classified as a program under the Court of Common Pleas and budget authority rests with the Board of Commissioners; and

WHEREAS, on July 11, 2006, House Bill 162 was signed into law by the Governor and transferred oversight authority for the CBCF from the Court to a Facility Governing Board, effectively creating an agency that is separate and independent from the Franklin County organizational structure;

WHEREAS, aside from these oversight changes, House Bill 162 authorizes the CBCF for continual use of county services including accounting, payroll, banking, and legal representation; and

WHEREAS, the terms of appointment to the Facilities Governing Board shall be for a period of three-years; and

WHEREAS, this appointment is to fill a vacant seat due to the resignation of Clarence E. Glover; now, therefore
